

One Book, One School

Although we are sad to have finished this year's One Book, One School, our reading event could not have ended in a more exciting way. Although Winter Storm Toby tried to keep us down, Warren Point is stronger than any Nor'easter! On Thursday, Warren Point welcomed author Adriana Brad Schanen, author of Quinny & Hopper. Not only did Mrs. Schanen speak to students about how Quinny & Hopper came to be, she also spoke to the children about hard work (writing a book), never giving up on your dreams (revise, revise, revise!) and giving everyone a chance (people are unique and kindness is the key). One student from each grade level was chosen to have lunch with Mrs. Schanen and have her autograph their copy of Quinny & Hopper. None of this would have been possible without the support of our wonderful PTA. THANK YOU!

Congratulations to the winners of this year's Friends of the Library Bookmark Contest:

Kindergarten: Brook De Lucca
Grade 1: Juliette Janevski
Grade 2: Abby Sahoury
Grade 3: Kaitlyn Spellman
Grade 5: Marcella Mauro

Pride at the Point Award:

This award is presented to students who are recognized by teachers and staff for their efforts to consistently be kind, be leaders, and display the courage to make good choices, which make Warren Point and its community a better place for everyone. Students who receive the Pride at the Point award are true lighthouses... standing strong and guiding people in the right direction.

Please help me in congratulating the following students for receiving the very prestigious Pride at the Point Award:

Kindergarten: Mason Baitala
Yashas Bulamurali
Gia Rosario
Violet Wyka

Grade 1: Johanna Park
Logan Purtill

Grade 5: Isabel Galinov

